Bishop Election

Dear Parish Family,

I am thrilled to report that the diocese has elected a new bishop. On the third ballot The Rev. Colin Ambrose was selected to be the 12th Bishop of the Diocese of Tennessee. Please join me in prayer for Colin and his family as he prepares to lead the diocese.

I want to thank our selection delegates: Monna Mayhall, Jonathan Webster, Michael Walters-Young, Ann Denson, and Paul Hannah for their good and spirit-led work. And I want to thank you for your thoughts, opinions, and prayers during these past few weeks.

Let us all give thanks for this great day in the life of our diocese. There will be much more to come, I'm sure. Until then, may God continue to bless our diocese and our church home of St. Paul's.

Peace,

Turkeys Needed

It is turkey cooking time once again! This year, we will be cooking turkey dinners for 325 folks and we will need 37 12-16 pound turkeys. The weight is important because we cannot fit any turkeys over 16 pounds on the cookers. We will be cooking turkeys on Monday November 23rd, beginning at 9:00 AM.

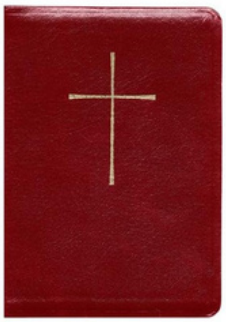

Unfortunately, we do not have freezer space for 37 turkeys, but we do have refrigerator and cooler space to store the turkeys overnight. Please bring your thawed turkeys to church on Sunday November 22nd. There will be coolers in founders hall and to receive turkeys before or after the services all day on Sunday November 22nd. PLEASE bring only thawed turkeys. Frozen turkeys are very difficult to cook on the cookers.

Thank You! Our Friends on Natchez Street greatly appreciate your generosity.

If you have any questions please call Mike Gengler at 615-545-8344

Compline

There will not be Compline on the fourth Tuesday of the month in November or December. We will resume on January 26, 2027.

If you are new to St. Paul's, we would love to get to know you a little better. The staff of St. Paul's is hosting a Newcomers' Dinner at the home of The Rev. Rusty and Laura McCown on November 10th. This will be a time to get to know each other a little better and answer any questions you might have about St. Paul's.

Godly Play

Want to know the secret to having the most fun possible on a Sunday morning at St. Paul's? Volunteer to help with Godly Play! Godly Play is the curriculum we use for Children's Christian Formation and is offered most Sundays at 10 am September through May.

Godly Play IS:

- centered on sharing sacred stories from the Bible and liturgical action stories to help our children understand the seasons of the church year
- a place where children (and adults!) are invited into wonder and encouraged to ask important questions
- hands on and engaging
- flexible for a volunteer to choose the best times for them to participate

Goldy Play IS NOT:

- a rigid curriculum that teaches children to regurgitate lessons from the Bible
- a traditional curriculum that involves a lot of time spent lesson planning

If you are interested, please reach out to Libby: libby@stpaulsfranklin.com.

Sunday Morning Hospitality Volunteers Needed

Our amazing Sunday morning crew needs your help. If you, your friends, or your family would like to help with Biscuit Minute on Sundays this fall, we would appreciate your assistance.

All food is provided (but if you like whipping up family favorites like muffins or cookies, it would be welcomed!)

Arrival time is 9:00 am and we need help putting out food and making coffee, as well as tidying up after our 9:45 Biscuit Meeting Moments.

There will be someone to guide you, so you won't have to do it on your own. Sundays are listed here (https://bit.ly/SP-biscuit-minute) if you would like to help.

Contact Donna Stokes-Rogers is you have questions (615) 481-5144.

Blessing of the Animals

Blessing of the Animals

Blessing of the Animals was Sunday, October 4th. We gathered in front of Barnabas to pray for pets that are ill, remember those who have passed, and bless those at the service.

A Prayer for Pets Who Are Ill Or Suffering

Loving God, you brought these beloved animals into our lives, to share kindness, joy, and faithful companionship: Receive our thanks and praise for the community between your animals and your people, and all the ways in which we bless each other's lives. Relieve these sick animals of their pain; may they return to good health. Comfort these aging animals; may their last years be full of love and happiness. We entrust them to your care, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer For Pets Who Have Died

We are grateful to have shared our homes and our lives with them, and they with us. Bless all those who mourn; may memories of their loving companion comfort them. In your name we pray. Amen

St. Paul's is helping to sponsor a family for Habitat for Humanity

Meet the Dumov Family

Ivan and Neila and their four children, ages ranging from 9-20 years old, were born and raised in Ukraine where they built their lives surrounded by family, friends, and a strong sense of community. In Fall of 2021, they made the courageous decision to move their family to Tennessee in search of new opportunities. Currently they are building a new chapter of life in the U.S, and Habitat for Humanity, brings them a step closer to having a stable home for their family.

Room in the Inn

St. Paul's will again support Room in the Inn during the upcoming 2026-2027 season. As with last year, we will help Franklin First United Methodist Church (FFUMC) by serving RITI guests during the winter season (November - March). The program provides safe shelter, warm meals, and fellowship for our neighbors struggling with homelessness during the coldest months of the year.

You have two options for participating in this important ministry:

1) You can assist St. Paul's Men's and Women's groups in preparing lunches and dinners and/or serving meals to our guests for 2-3 nights this season, and/or

2) Sign up as a volunteer at FFUMC to help with transportation, set-up, innkeeping and numerous other activities to help our RITI guests.

Both roles are critical to the success of this ministry and FFUMC has gladly welcomed St. Paul's participation in helping our guests.

If you are interested, please contact Paul Hannah (paulrhannah1@gmail.com or 615-512-5673). Further details on how to sign-up with FFUMC directly to help this ministry will be available soon. This includes background checks and safe sanctuary training for all FFUMC volunteers - this requirement does NOT apply to those preparing/serving meals as part of St. Paul's Men's and Women's groups.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
Attn: Reverend Monna Mayhall and the Outreach Committee
510 West Main
Franklin, TN 37064

Dear Reverend Monna Mayhall and the Outreach Committee,

On behalf of our athletes, families, and volunteers, thank you for your generous gift of $5,000.00 on July 23, 2026, supporting Special Olympics Tennessee's Williamson County Athletes. Because of you, more than 22,000 athletic opportunities are provided across Tennessee. These athletes find joy, confidence, and fulfillment while inspiring people in our communities to open their hearts to a wider world of human talents and potential.

Our mission remains as vital today as it did when the movement was founded in 1968: Special Olympics strives to create a better world by fostering acceptance and inclusion of all people.

- Special Olympics Tennessee hosts more than 275 events each year in 17 sports.
- Special Olympics Tennessee provides health screenings in nine different disciplines.
- Special Olympics Tennessee's Unified Champion Schools program is aimed at equipping young people with tools and training to create sports, classroom, and school climates of acceptance.
- Participants never age out of the program.
- Special Olympics Tennessee competitions, health screenings, and fitness programming are 100% free for all athletes.

Through the power of sport, people with intellectual disabilities discover new strengths and abilities, skills and success. Together, we are helping to make the world a better, healthier, and more joyful place - one athlete, one volunteer, one family at a time.

Thank you again for your investment in unity, inspiration, and greatness.

Love Thy Neighbor

Throughout the year, the Cookie Ministry, coordinated by Love Thy Neighbor, has shared love, gratitude, and hope throughout our community by delivering 62 boxes of homemade cookies to non-profits, schools, police stations, fire stations, fire and rescue stations, emergency rooms, downtown churches, and nursing homes. We are deeply grateful to all our bakers and delivery volunteers. This month, we thank bakers Mike Locklar, Susan Miller, Laura McCown, Susie Trabue, Suzanne Dibble, Judy Phelps, and Jayne Wille. Special thanks to Susie Trabue and Jayne Wille for helping with this month's deliveries.

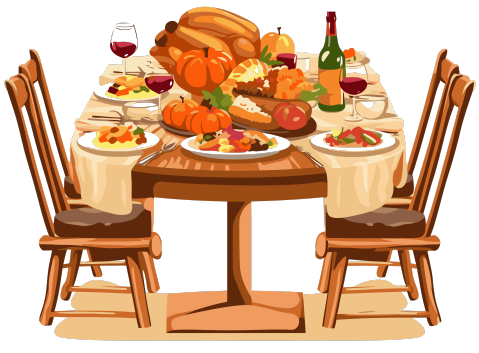

Spring Street

Thank you to everyone who cooked, served and donated bingo prizes for our October Spring Street. The ladies were very appreciative and had a lot of fun! Our dear Raquel brought a flan dessert for all the volunteers and Kathy Berry's chili was delicious! Thank you also to all who donated toothpaste for the Anette Lane memorial event. We have a real partnership with this community.

Here is the sign up for our November 19 Spring Street gathering. We will have a Thanksgiving meal and play silly games. We are very thankful for all our volunteers!

If you like a party, and if you have a heart for visiting people, then we have an opportunity for you that combines the two. On the 2nd Tuesday of every month, join with parishioners to visit Charter Senior Living of Franklin, to celebrate the birthdays of the Charter residents for that month. We will plan to meet there from 12:30-1:30 pm giving us a chance to visit with residents, and eat cake too!

Grief Support Group at St. Paul's

Loss comes in all shapes and sizes. Grief of any kind can feel very lonely, even when you have loved ones around. Sharing your sorrow with others who have experienced similar losses can help. The pain of grief can often cause you to want to withdraw from others and retreat into your shell. But having the face-to-face support of other people is vital to healing from loss. The key is not to isolate yourself. St. Paul's offers a Grief Support Group on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays, from 10-11 am in Founders.

Questions: Contact Monna Mayhall at monna@stpaulsfranklin.com.

CiTY (Church in the Yard)

On the third Sunday of each month, a group from St. Paul's travels to the Church of the Holy Trinity in downtown Nashville to participate in Church in the Yard (a.k.a. "CITY"). We serve hot meals to 125-150 of our homeless brothers and sisters and provide them with a small ToGo bag of food that they can take with them to eat later. Throughout the year we also provide coats, scarves, gloves, socks and other essential clothing when we can.

If you feel called to support our outreach efforts through this ministry, there are many ways you can help: grocery shopping, food preparation, assembling ToGo bags, serving food at Holy Trinity, and providing clothing as needed. If you have questions or want more information, please contact Ellen Kirk 615-545-8820/ellenvkirk@gmail.com or Gerald Hancock 615-604-9635/gwhancock44@gmail.com.

DOK - Daughters of the King

We are strengthened through the discipline of a Rule of Life, a focus on prayer, service and evangelism, and are supported through the companionship of our sisters.

Between now and the Bicentennial, the Historic Committee will be writing a series of articles about the people and the history of St. Paul's. An important part of that series will be about our history with the African-American community. This article was written in 2024 and is reprinted this month as a beginning of that conversation.

St. Paul's in Hard Bargain: St. John's Colored Episcopal Church

St. John's Colored Episcopal Church was a mission of St. Paul's founded to minister to the African-American community.

St. John's Colored Episcopal Church was a mission of St. Paul's founded to minister to the African-American community.

At the time of its founding, St. Paul's had several owners of enslaved people in its congregation and on its Vestry. Slave galleries existed in the sanctuary; these were torn out when the roof was lowered during the Church's restoration in 1871.

Whether it was Jim Crow laws or simply the prevailing racial attitudes of the times, Blacks no longer attended St. Paul's after the Civil War. Many of the former slaves began converting to the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

A parishioner, Miss Maude Reid, a descendant of the prominent - and slaveholding - Perkins and Cochrane families, felt, as historian Scott Smith tells us, it was a "terrible loss to both the Church and its estranged communicants."

In 1916, "Miss Maude" took it upon herself to found St. John's Colored Episcopal Church in the Hard Bargain neighborhood. This neighborhood, developed by former slave Harvey McLemore, was and is a two-block area that housed many Black laborers for area industries and was a stable African-American community.

In 1916, Dr. H.P. Cochrane, a relative of Miss Maude, and his wife sold for five dollars a plot of land to the "Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Tennessee" for the "use of a negro mission."

In 1922, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Tulloss sold a plot of land to the diocese; it is a canon of the national Church that the diocese own all the real estate and property in its diocese. This plot is on Mt. Hope Street across from the Mt. Hope Cemetery. The diocese, and by extension St. Paul's, agreed to build a "substantial fence" on the east, south, and west sides of the lot for as long as they owned it. A church building was erected here in 1922.

According to a 1938 letter sent by Miss Maude to her cousin, long-time parishioner and Vestry member John Henderson, Sr., St. Paul's had a history of outreach, being "regular visitors at the country and 'Poor Farm.'" She recollected that when Rev. Edward Bradley (who was largely responsible for St. Paul's rebuilding after the Civil War) was rector, he would "ride Papa's pony to Triune...to conduct services."

Because so many African-Americans had established themselves in other churches, St. John's never thrived. However, according to Miss Maude, "nearly 100 persons had been baptized at St. John's by 1928." The church in 1939 had a vicar, Rev. S.A. Walcott (about whom we can find no information).

Our parish archive has a notebook from 1939 that lists four families totaling eight communicants of St. John's. Two children were baptized and another confirmed by Rev. Walcott in July of 1939. According to historian Rick Warwick, "The mission realized only a couple families as members although it was widely attended during Summer Bible Schools and church socials." The attendance at the Bible camps could explain why so many were baptized through 1928.

Miss Maude was widely scoffed at for her efforts. The church building itself began falling into disrepair and was in a frequently flooded area. An article from the February 20, 1949, Nashville Tennessean Magazine said "flash floods of early spring sometimes brought alarmed messages from Hard Bargain: 'St. Maude's done floating away again'.... (the members of the tiny church always named it gratefully for the little lady of St. Paul's whose untiring devotion never failed them.)"

Scant attendance and no more than widow's mite funding finally caused St. John's struggle to end in 1939. At the January 1945 meeting of the Vestry, a letter was approved to send to Bishop James Maxon asking the diocese to sell the church. According to Vestryman Robert H. Polk, who authored the letter:

"No services have been held in this church for many years, the front porch is falling away, no lights of any kind are available and the whole building is in poor repair. By diligent inquiry, we are unable to find more than two parishioners of this church, and those two have slid to the rear considerably. Negroes here are not interested in our faith, since it is not demonstrative enough to suit their taste....

There are two glass candle stands on the altar of the type available in any ten-cent store as vases. An organ, foot pump style, is in the building, but in a very bad state of repair.... The altar covers, such as they are, were property of St. Paul's parish...and ought to be returned.

This building stands as a monument to our failure to establish a negro church here...."

At the March 1945 Vestry meeting, it was reported that the Diocese had indeed sold the property to G. Pillow Williams for $900 cash. A tobacco warehouse later stood on the property behind the abandoned church and when the warehouse burned in the 1980's, so did old St. John's.

And so came to an end the noble effort of "the little lady of St. Paul's whose untiring devotion never failed them." St. John's was a victim of being too little too late, of economic hardship and of a segregated society. It's important that we understand the relationship of St. Paul's and the African-American community and, although we still have a long way to go nationally binding our racial wounds, we can rejoice that St. Paul's doors are open to all.

We hope you have enjoyed this article about the journey of St. Paul's. If you have questions, further information on the topic, and especially ideas for future articles, please let us know.

Bicentennial Society

Honoring St. Paul's 200th Anniversary

Our St. Paul's Episcopal Church was founded on August 25th, 1827, in a room of the Hiram Masonic Lodge #7 in Franklin when those persons "friendly to the formation of an Episcopal church in the area" met under the leadership of Reverend James Hervey Otey. Honored as the "Mother Church of the Diocese of Tennessee," St. Paul's led the way for Episcopal congregations to bloom throughout our state.

Today, there are three organizations committed to preserving the legacy of St. Paul's.

- The Historic Committee preserves our past and secures our future through projects and events beyond St. Paul's annual operating budget.
- The Bicentennial Committee, overseen by The Historic Committee, plans and carries out activities for our 2027 anniversary.
- The Bicentennial Society raises funds to support the work of both committees.

Education, Preservation & Celebration

Support from the Bicentennial Society helps bring our history to life, care for our historic church, and gather our parish and community in celebration.

Education: The Society supports public history symposiums exploring Franklin's early churches and their role in shaping our community. These gatherings educate and unite our local faith communities. The Society also helped create the history panels in Otey Hall and self-guided tour brochures for our historic church.

Bicentennial Society

Honoring St. Paul's 200th Anniversary

Preservation: The Society has supported cataloguing historic documents and photographs, now maintained at the Williamson County Archives; restoring the broken tombstone of Bishop Otey's son near the church's front entrance; and repairing the historic wooden louvers above the front doors.

Celebration: Annual parish birthday celebrations mark our countdown to 2027. Society funding will also support the church-wide and community events being planned for our Bicentennial.

One of the primary goals of the Bicentennial Society is to raise funds to support related church-wide and community events without straining our annual operating budget. If you'd like to take part in this unique historic undertaking, please consider joining the Bicentennial Society and play an important role in the education, preservation, and celebration of St. Paul's. Your $1,000 pledge—due in 2027—can be paid over time by visiting stpaulsfranklin.com/give.

Join St. Paul's Bicentennial Society

With St. Paul's upcoming 200th birthday, please consider joining the Bicentennial Society by making a donation of $1,000, payable on a schedule of your choosing between now and 2027.

Funding from the Bicentennial Society supports our mission of preserving our past, and securing our future by supporting various projects and events that are not provided for in St. Paul's annual budget. As a member, you will play an important role in these endeavors.

Education: St. Paul's recently hosted a History Symposium on the establishment of the early churches in the city of Franklin. This symposium, open to the entire community, was the first of a series of events to both educate and unite our local faith communities. The Bicentennial Society has also helped create the history panels on display in Otey Hall and the self-guided tour brochures of our historic nave.

Preservation: The Bicentennial Society has helped catalogue our historic documents and photographs now maintained at the Williamson County Archives, and will soon undertake the restoration of the broken tombstone of Bishop Otey's son at the front entrance of the church.

Presently, the society is helping with the repair of the historic wooded louvers above the front doors of St. Paul's. Keeping the historic parts of our church in good repair is a key goal for the Bicentennial Society.

Celebration: Your membership will also support the many events currently in the planning stages for 2027. When the Bicentennial Society was established in 2017, one of the primary goals was to raise funds to support church-wide and community celebrations without straining the annual operating budget of the church.

Please consider joining the Bicentennial Society and play an important role in the Education, Preservation, and Celebration of St. Paul's.

Gratefully,

Jay Fahey and Libby Sullivan, Bicentennial Co-chairs

For more information, please contact Shannon or any member of the recycling committee. St. Paul's and the environment are grateful for your help.

Financial Performance for the Month of September 2026

September Summary: Three-fourths into the fiscal year and the parish is still performing better than expected overall, but the trend of spending more than collecting continues.

Revenues: Revenues were lower than expected in July due to lower than anticipated pledging and cash-in-plate. For the year, revenues are still 4.8% above expectations.

Expenses: Expenses were higher than anticipated in September. This overage of $10,000 includes a large payment for Property for painting services authorized by the Vestry ($17,250).

Overall: For the year the parish is still operating with a surplus, but the margins are narrowing.
